The Bible: The Word of God

Introduction

Memory Verse

“And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.”

2 Timothy 3:15

The book in your hand is a guide to help you study the Bible and to open for you, with God’s blessing, the beautiful riches contained in Scripture. However, before we begin to study the books of the Bible, we should first understand what the Bible is and how to approach the Bible.

The Bible is a collection of sixty-six books. Thirty-nine of these books are found in the Old Testament and twenty-seven in the New Testament. The sixty-six books of the Bible were written over a 2,000-year period by over forty different men. The books of the Old Testament were written in Hebrew. The first five books of the Bible, found in the Old Testament, were written by Moses. The last book in the Bible, found in the New Testament, was written by the Apostle John. John wrote the book of Revelation while he was exiled on the Island of Patmos. The New Testament books were written in Greek.

While everything that was said so far about the Bible is true, the Bible is so much more. The Bible is not like any other book. It is inspired. This means that the men who wrote the books of the Bible wrote as “they were moved by the Holy Ghost” (2 Peter 2:21). Since the Bible is inspired by God, the Bible is infallible. This means that it does not err in what it reveals. Additionally, the Bible is not a book about men or the history of men. It is revelation. In it, God is revealing something. God inspired men to write, in order that he might make himself and his salvation known to fallen sinners. How blessed is the person who has a Bible! Who hears the Word of God!

Finally, how should we approach the Bible? We should approach the Bible seriously. The matter that Scripture speaks about is so important for a person’s happiness and God’s glory, that we should not be careless in our reading. The Bible reveals everything that a person needs to know to live in comfort and die in peace. We should approach the Bible reverently. When we open the Bible, God is speaking. Therefore, we should approach the Word, not as if it is just some words on a page, but as it is in reality—a coming before the living God. Lastly, we should approach the Bible prayerfully. As we read and study the Word of God, ask God for wisdom. As we learn the history of salvation and the salvation that God has made possible in his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, continually ask God to bless his Word to your heart. May your prayer be, “Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me” (Psalm 51:10).
