Review Questions:

1. Why should Christians today appreciate the history of the patriarchs?

---

---

2. What were God's reasons for judging and destroying Sodom and Gomorrah? What spiritual lessons can we draw from this biblical history?

---

---

---

3. Why should we pay attention to details that were recorded in the book of Genesis?

---

---

---

4. How does Isaac's submission to his father point to the Lord Jesus Christ?

---

---

---

5. How does the redemptive theme of submission apply to Christians today?

---

---

---

6. How did the Apostle Paul use the story of Jacob and Esau to teach the doctrine of Election?

---

---

---

---

7. What warnings for the New Testament church can be taken from the life of Esau?

---

---

---

---

8. Where can you observe the fruits of faith and obedience in Jacob's life?

---

---

---

---

9. Give examples of "twists and turns" of God's providence in Genesis. What can you learn from these things?

---

---

---

---

---

10. Why was Joseph so concerned that his bones would be taken back to the promised land and buried there? What does this reveal about Joseph?

---

---

---

Further Applications

1. Joseph serves as a picture of the Deliverer, a type of Christ. Meditate on the life of Joseph and draw connections between Joseph's life and Jesus' life.

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. How can we understand that the patriarchs received great promises of land in Canaan, but they died with little property? What application can be made for Christians today?

---
