Lecture #14

David

Lecture Theme:

God's covenant with David further intensifies the promise of the coming Seed. David's future Son will be greater than David, as the King of kings, and his kingdom will be an eternal kingdom.

Memory Text:

“Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David... being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne.”

—Acts 2, verses 29 and 30.

Structure:

1. Introduction.
2. The preparation for David.
 - a. The need for a king.
 - b. David—the king after God's heart.
3. The covenant with David.
 - a. David conquered Jerusalem.
 - b. David brought the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem.
 - c. David found rest from all his enemies.
 - d. Type of Christ.
4. David's greater Son.
 - a. Christ's kingship.
 - b. Every Christian is a king.
5. Conclusion.

Review Questions:

1. What was the background of David's kingship?

2. Was Israel's request for a king sinful? What was the real problem?

3. What is an unusual aspect of David's genealogy, and what does this say about the gospel?

4. Compare the sin of David and the sin of Saul. Draw spiritual instructions from that.

5. What are the three events that set the stage for God's covenant with David, in 2 Samuel chapter 7?

6. How did God reward David's zeal to build God's house?

7. How should we understand, "When we read forward in the Bible and in history, it appears that the reign of David's house eventually ceased"?

8. Is every Christian a king? How does this relate to the doctrine of the priesthood of all believers?

9. The promise to David's seed is found in Christ. Prove this from the Old Testament and the New Testament.

Further Applications

1. Is there an event in David's life that has had a great influence on your Christian life? How do you see the glory of God's grace from that event?

2. How did David reflect God's own character? Should the children of God reflect God's own character in some way?
