Lecture Theme:

After the kingdom divides, both Israel and Judah turn away from God's covenant to idolatry, and God sets before them the path to blessings and curses. It is clear that God's great King has not yet come.

Memory Text:

"For he is our peace, who hath made both one and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us...and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby." —Ephesians 2, verses 14 and 16.

Structure:

- 1. Introduction.
- 2. A few suggestions for the study of this portion.

  - b. Promised King is coming.
  - c. The kingdom in the New Testament.
- 6. Conclusion.

Review Questions:

1. What are the suggestions given to help us keep track of all the details of this historical portion?

2. What is the standard for distinguishing between godly and ungodly kings? What role do David and Jeroboam play throughout this lengthy history?

3. What was the cause for the division of the kingdom of Israel into two parts? In separating, what did northern Israel actually do?

4. What was the attitude of the southern kingdom of Judah toward the northern kingdom of Israel? Did they learn from God's dealings with the northern kingdom?

5. Will the division of Israel ever be healed? And if so, how?

6. What does "idolatry" mean? What is an idol?

7. How does the Bible speak about the sin of idolatry?

8. What is the important consequence of idolatry?

9. How is the theme of idolatry traced through the New Testament? How do we understand the phrase, "We become like what we worship"?

10. How does this period set our expectation of what will come with the arrival of Christ? What are the implications for the remainder of history?

Further Applications

1. Follow the three suggestions for learning this portion. Try to make a parallel timeline of the two kingdoms. Include each of the prophets, and indicate during which kings they prophesied. Finally, try to find maps that will help you understand the geography of Israel and Judah.

2. Meditate of Psalm 67. Ask the Lord to take the glorious gospel of his grace to all nations, and to make them glad in the Lord Jesus Christ.
