Moses and the Burning Bush

Exodus 3 – Exodus 4

Memory Verse

And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

Exodus 3:5

Holy Ground

As Moses was keeping the flock of Jethro (called Reuel in Exodus 2), he saw something amazing. He saw a bush burning, but not consumed. Approaching the bush, he heard the words, “Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground” (Exodus 3:5). Why was Moses commanded to remove his shoes? He was commanded to do so because the place that he was approaching was not common ground. It was not like every other place. In fact, it was a special place. It was the place where the Lord spoke to Moses. The removal of the shoes was to indicate the reverence that was to be in the heart, as he drew near to God.

When we read the Bible, we should keep in mind how Moses approached the burning bush. We should not approach the Bible as if it were a common book – a book like every other book. We should approach it with reverence, respect, and expectation. We should approach it aware that in the Bible, God speaks, God reveals. It is the voice of the living God. It is good to remember, when we open the Word of God, we are on holy ground.

A Bush Not Consumed

A remarkable sight indeed. If you set a log on fire, eventually the log is consumed and the fire dies. However, we see a bush, burning with fire, and yet not consumed. How can that be? There is but one answer. It is a miracle. It is not consumed because the power of God keeps and preserves the bush from destruction. The burning bush not consumed should cause us to reflect upon the existence of the Church of God.

The church has been persecuted throughout all ages. Even to this present day. God is despised and His people hated. Time and again people have tried to destroy the church. Yet try as they might, the church is not consumed. How can this be? As God preserved the bush, so He preserves His church from age to age. When the world persecutes you and says all manner of evil against you, take courage. Remember the words of Elisha, when surrounded by the Syrians – “they that be with us are more than they that be with them” (II Kings 6:16). Who is with His people? “The LORD of hosts is his name” (Isaiah 47:4).

God Sends a Deliverer

God is not a God far off from His creation. He did not create the cosmos and then turn His attention to something else. His mind is ever and always upon the works of His hands. God sees the affliction of His people. Seeing, He acts – “I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians” (Exodus 3:8). What was it that moved God to deliver them? Was it their goodness? No, we find a better reason than man’s goodness. It is God’s faithfulness to His covenant promises that He will deliver His people by the hand of Moses. There is no greater ground than the faithfulness of God to His covenant promises.

In sending Moses to deliver the Hebrew children, we are given a picture of God’s faithfulness to His promises. Remember, when Adam and Eve sinned? How they had lost their relationship with God. Cast out from the Garden, never to return. What did God promise? He promised a Savior, who would bruise the head of the serpent. As Moses would deliver the Hebrew children from the hand of Pharaoh, so Jesus Christ was sent to deliver all those, oppressed by their sins, who put their trust in Him.
