Lecture Checkup

1. Does God have one plan, or many plans? What are the characteristics of God's plan?

2. How did God determine all things? Why did he not go and seek advice from others?

3. Does God have a purpose for everything that he has determined to do? What is his purpose?

4. How should we respond to those who say that God is selfish in his motive to seek his own glory?

5. Does God's plan include every detail that takes place in all of the universe, and throughout all of history?

6. If God's plan is sovereign, does that mean he causes us to sin? How does the Bible explain this?

7. When we understand that God is sovereign over everything, how should that affect us?

8. Since God has a sovereign plan, does that mean we are just puppets? How should we respond to God's commands and promises that he has revealed in his Word?

9. Has God revealed all of his sovereign plan, or has he hidden part of it? What should our attitude be concerning those things which God has hidden from us?

10. How should we respond to all that God has revealed in his Word?

11. What comforts can the believer draw from the truth that God has sovereignly decreed everything that comes to pass for the very best purpose?

Practical Application

1. Read the account of Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel chapter 4. Meditate on what this story teaches us about God's sovereignty.

2. Meditate on Psalm 23. How does the psalmist show the expression of faith, of trusting God who is perfectly in control of all things, and of resting in his promises?
