Escaping God's Wrath and Curse: Repentance unto Life

Memorization

Question 87: What is repentance unto life?

Answer: Repentance unto life is a saving grace, whereby a sinner, out of a true sense of his sin, and apprehension of the mercy of God in Christ, doth, with grief and hatred of his sin, turn from it unto God, with full purpose of, and endeavour after, new obedience.

Lecture Structure

1. Introduction.
2. The nature of true repentance.
3. The motives for true repentance.
4. The continuance of true repentance.
5. Conclusion.

Basic Questions for Question and Answer 87

1. What does the word, "apprehension" mean as it is used in this lecture?

2. Summarize the answer to this question or put it into your own words.

Lecture Checkup

1. Are repentance unto life and saving faith the same thing? What is the relationship between them?

2. What is the main meaning of repentance?

3. What is true repentance? What does it turn from? What does it turn to? How do you see that in the Bible?

4. What is false repentance? What does it lead to? How do you know that from the example of Judas Iscariot?

5. What are the other two things we need to notice about true repentance?

6. What motives, two key understandings, does God give to a sinner to bring him to repentance?

7. What does the Catechism mean by “apprehension of the mercy of God in Christ”? How does this encourage the sinner to repent?

8. Is repentance something we only do once, when we come to saving faith? How often should a believer repent of their sins?

9. What does the expression, “new obedience” mean for the believer?

10. When the sinner is brought to saving faith, how will his life be changed? How do those changes come about? What will be the evidence of his having been converted?

Practical Application

1. What is your greatest need regarding repentance? Do unconverted sinners have an excuse for not repenting? If the sinner sees his sin, and doesn't know how to repent, what can he do? Please explain your answer.

2. Have you truly repented and turned to God in faith and trust in Jesus Christ? Have you turned from your sin and are you endeavoring after new obedience? If so, you have much to praise God for.
